

Revised NSW Government Procurement Policy Framework commences 1 July 2019 [1]

2 July 2019

The Procurement Policy Framework [2] sets the policy and operating framework for the NSW public sector procurement system.

The revised framework [3] incorporates all existing government policy and Procurement Board requirements for procurement.

The framework applies to all new government goods and services and construction procurement from 1 July 2019.

The overarching consideration for government procurement is ensuring best value for money.

All NSW government agencies, as defined in s.162 of the Public Works and Procurement Act 1912 [4], must comply with the mandatory sections of the Framework. The Act excludes state-owned corporations, local councils and the Parliament of NSW.

The framework will be updated on a 3 monthly schedule as new policy requirements and Procurement Board Directions are issued. The next update will be released on 1 October 2019.
